

Join the Friends of the Oak Creek Public Library

Friends of the Oak Creek Public Library is an independent organization of people interested in assisting the library in developing programs, encouraging gifts, promoting knowledge, and providing a channel for individuals and organizations to express ideas and make suggestions for library use and services.

Become a member by returning this form, with your annual dues, to the library or join online at www.oakcreeklibrary.org/friends. The Friends of the Library meet the 1st Thursday of each month at 6pm at the Oak Creek Civic Center.
